

Wendy's sense of humour takes the stress out of being hairy, so clients can relax and enjoy their hair-removal experience

THE HAIRSTOP CLINIC

Master electrologist Wendy Gilbert-Grey has taken the beauty industry by storm with her latest venture in Sydney's Edgecliff. Using intense pulse light technology, the Hairstop Clinic offers permanent solutions for unwanted hair and treats everything from unsightly pigmentation and sun spots to broken capillaries. People come from near and far for Wendy's professional services, low price promise and her fun, friendly approach, which stems from her passion for the business. Wendy keeps abreast of technology and provides her staff with advanced training to ensure clients receive the best care. Enjoy feeling hair free and boost your self-esteem in the process.
